We are pleased you will be joining us at the Cornell University Summer Debate Program this summer. As a participant in the program, you are expected to act in a responsible manner and be respectful toward fellow debaters, coaches, and staff. Campers are required to adhere to the following rules and regulations. Please read this information carefully.

Debaters are required to attend all instructional and activity sessions and to be on time for attendance check-ins.

Debaters are only permitted to travel to areas indicated on the camp itinerary and must always be accompanied by a counselor(s). Travel to non-sanctioned areas of campus or to off campus locations are prohibited unless it is a scheduled outing with camp staff. This includes Collegetown, all gorges and swimming in any unrestricted areas.

Dorms: Boys will not be allowed on girls’ floors and vice-versa. No sports equipment is to be used in the dorms. All other dorms are off limits. There are numerous other programs on campus at the same time as debate camps. Participants in other campus programs are not permitted in debater’s dorms.

Dormitory curfew is at 10:00 p.m. Final lights out is at 11:00 p.m. Any debater outside or exiting the dormitory after curfew will be expelled from camp.

Any debater found to have any alcohol, drugs or tobacco in their possession, or vandalizing any Cornell property, will be immediately expelled from camp.

Debaters are required to bus their dining trays and utensils. No food is to be taken from the dining hall. Any debater caught throwing food or dropping food from upstairs will be expelled from camp.

Cornell additionally reserves the right to immediately expel debaters for any other disruptive or unacceptable behavior, in Cornell’s sole discretion.
Upon expulsion from camp for any reason, the debater’s parent or guardian will be notified immediately, regardless of the hour, and will have 24 hours to arrange for return transportation for their child from Ithaca, New York, at their own expense. No refund of any fees will be given for any debater who is expelled from camp.

A $40 key/room damage deposit will be collected from resident debaters at time of online registration or at camp check-in.

Debaters will be responsible for any damages they cause and the cost of such damages will be deducted from the key deposit and/or charged to the credit card account on file. The deposit will be refunded at checkout pending satisfactory room inspection and the return of room keys.

Our signatures indicate that we have read the rules and regulations, understand them, and agree to abide by them.
