Accessibility and Bathrooms

Rockefeller Hall:

There are elevators throughout the building; if you (as a judge or debater) need a debate room close to the GA, accessible for a wheel/power chair, or movable seating (rather than fixed desk) – please let Lindsay Bing know (LB542@cornell.edu)

There are single-gender bathrooms on the first and basement floors of the Rockefeller building. There are single-stall, gender-neutral bathrooms on the fourth floor of the Rockefeller building (Rooms 410 and 414)

There is a water-bottle refill fountain on the basement level only.

Uris Hall:

There is an elevator in the central corridor through the main doors. It is as if it goes up the very center of the building.

Single-gender bathrooms on opposite sides of the main hallway on the ground floor. There is a single-stall, gender neutral, accessible bathroom on the ground floor near office G74A

Goldwin Smith Hall:

Single-gender bathrooms on main (first) and basement floors.

Gender-neutral bathrooms in hallway of adjacent Klarman Hall Atrium (the space in between Rockefeller and Goldwin Smith)

Water-bottle refill: Large machine in connecting hallway between Goldwin Smith and Klarman Hall; in Klarman Hall second floor near bathrooms/offices
